

FPCON LEVELS

FORCE PROTECTION

A general global threat of possible terrorist activity exists & warrants a routine security posture.
Access control conducted at all DOD installations & facilities.

Increased general threat of possible terrorist activity against personnel or facilities.
Nature and extent of threat are unpredictable.

Increased or predictable threat of terrorist activity exists.

Incident occurs or intelligence is received indicating some form of terrorist action or targeting of personnel or facilities is likely.

Declared as a localized condition. Applies in the immediate area where an attack has occurred or when intelligence is received indicating terrorist action against a location is imminent.